"BE DOETH ALL THINGS WELL."-W. heard a beautiful girl singing, not long sines. and the bunden of her song was in the je words. As the harmony of purest music issued from the lips and struck upon the delighted ent, thoughts came also of fairs years-of life's changes, of calquaties, of misfortunes of joys, of pleasures, the sunshine of happiness, of all the (vicissitue is of one year on earth. For in life's pilgrimage there are many dark and dangerous poissiges; many dark ravince of sorrow; mahy unibushments of cares and pains; many lovely abodes of temptation; many bestels of sinand evil; but through all the darkness and ldanger and sorrow-through cares, temptations and sin, there are still for "life"s voyager," the cheering words-" He doeth all things well,"

Many doubts are lingering about the minds many unbelieving thoughts, many harrassit ing suspicions, many fearful apprehensions of coating evill, many tamperings with the temper; but to the doubting, to the disbelieving, to the almost desponding, there is an end to all doubt, all disbelief, in the thought of a sure guide, a firm protector, an ever weichfol minil, whose habitation is infinity-whose life is eternity-who "doeth all things well."

A Woman's VICTORY !- A. Pezzlino Case.-The Detroit Advertiser of the 7th inst, tells a queer story, which we condense. On the Saturday previous at Young's Tavern, five miles from Detroit, the landlord missed $906, and arrested his outler and a neighbor with his wife on ster plaion. When the case was tried the hostels awore she took the money, that it was her own, and was hidden, she would not tell where. The court said she must-she said she mucl'nt-would go to jail and stay there first."

She claimed that the money was her comand look it as such and meant to keep ition; if anybody could help themselves, lat dies do it. A vierne come since the counsel as to the 'relevancy' of several nice points whether it amounted to a theft, it heing her hurband's money, and whether sile was obliged to tell where it was, &c. She had fully exculpated the three accused, by shouldering it hereil; and now who was on trial?-or there anybody ? She said she was 'somathing of a tawver, and she did'nt think it very good law that a person should be obliged to tell everybody where their money was for they might, said she, want to isteal it. Lawyers looked blank—the court wasn't sure he was right; the woman was perfectly resigned to her fate. whether if was the juli or otherwise-reiteraring that the should keep the money anyhow; and the Court was obliged to dismiss the whole case, and all concerned."

$5 One of the most lady-like ways of expressing anger, hatered or contempt, is to fly out of the room, and siam the door -There is something dignified and noble in it; intredittis queenly.

Newport:

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1847. THEO. E. HACKSON, 91 THAMES ST.

Town Meering. At the Town Meeting leasing all interest which the Town might have, in the new Burying Ground, to the proprietors of the same, upon condition they pay no the Town the balance due for lots therein, amounting to a little over a hun-'dred dollars, Efforts were made by Messrs, John Stevens, Henry E. Turner, George W. Taylor and others, to have the subject-matter post-! paned .-- but they were voted down by a large imajority.

It is the intention of the Proprietors to petition the Legislature for an act of incor-

A committee was appointed, consisting of William Stevens, George Bowen and William A. Clarke, to enquire into the expediency of placing a new fence on the South side of the old burying ground, to shut up all gates thereon and to ascertain? what repairs are necessary on the tombstones in said ground.

Augustus Bush and George Bowen were ... appointed a committee to take charge of and superintend the Coddington Burying Grannd.

The meeting then adjourned until 2 o' clock in the afternoon.

In the atternoon, the report of the Commissioners of the Asylum relative to the : Inpane persons there, was noted on and the Board instructed to act in the matter. We shall give a more full account to-" mořrow.

A committee, consisting of the Town Treasurer, Benjamin Finch and Israel F. -Lake, were appointed to ascertain the ex pediency of selling a small piece of the Common, at the head of Broad street known as the old Pound and report at the next Town Meeting.

A vote was passed authorizing the publie to take said from under the Pence ma ning across the Town Beach. A vote was passed confirming the arrangement made by the Town Council with Joseph G. Stevens, in regard to land in the vicinity of the Powder House.

Quite a long debate was had on the propriety of instructing the Town Council to p is in Ordinance prohibiting dogs from ranning at large in the streets of Newport, and securing the property of our citizens from causiges done by them.

The following Resolution was then

Veted that the Town Council be and they are hereby directed to pass such Ordinances as they may deem necessary, pro-Libiting dogs from running at large in the Town of Newport ; and otherwise, restrictthem in such a way as shall protect the persons and property of the cuizens, there-

Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

A REMEDY for all diseases of the Hair, and is restorative in all cases where buildness is not beyond the reach of art.

Naught with beauty can compare, With soft, glossy locks of hair; If not endowed with such by nature Use I halon's Hair Invigorator

The subscriber Laving devoted a considerable portion of his time for twenty years to the study of the skin and the human hair, also the best means of treating and curing the same, and hav-ing, in the course of his experiments made various changes and improvements in the different arti-cles approved as the best for such purposes, bas at length, after laborious reserch and deep investiga-tion, succeeded in bringing to perfection a compo-sition, the virtues of which he challenges the world to excel.

The Chemical Hair Invigorator is composed of a number of regetable ingredients of opposite qual-ities, and approved by the highest medical steadaid, the secret of blending and combining, which is known only to the subscriber, who has spared neither pains nor expense in bringing it before be public.

The Invigorator is an aniele in which a cleaning and puritying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture of the hair never before strained, yet free from an-nimal grease or essential oils. It cleaners the pures of the skin caules a healthy action of the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which free the hair, thereby preventing baldiness and gray hoir, entirely frees the skin from sourt, dandrus, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and keeps it so—will positively change the hardest hair into the most soft and healthy and glossy state, al-so imparts in it a darker color, and a free use ufit will keep both the skin and hair in a healthy and luxuriant state until the last period of life.

Ludies will find the Invigorator a great addition to the toilet, both on recount of its the lieure and to the tolkt, both on recount of its thear and agreeable perfume; and the great facilities it affects in dressing the hair, which when mustered with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place whether plain or in curls. When used on childrens heads it lays the foundation of a good head of heir.

This is to certify that I have been afflicted for its Eyenys with a cough, pain in the chest, night swedist difficulty in breathing, etc., and I also expecterated a large quantity of frothy matter aim blood; from which I was reduced to a perfect skelsion, my throat was very much ulcerated. I had liner caustic applied to my throat twice a week; but received no henefit; I have used one functived different kinds of Patent Medicines, recommended by my friends, but all to no purpose. A friend of mine, Mr. Willett, whose lungs had connented by my friends, but all to me purpose. A friend of mine, Mr. Willett, whose lungs had been affected for two years past, was cured by Dr. Vondersmith's Medicine. He insisted upon my trying Dr. V., and I did so. After I had used his medicine to days, I expectorated large quantities of yellow feld matter, my chest expanded, and my difficulty in breathing subsided. I persevered with his medicine, and the result has been, I am perfectly cared of all my sickness. I recommund every constantive to try Dr. V.'s medicine, I am confident it will care you. Inflammation of the Lungs.
New York, June 19, 1817.
Dr. Vondersmith:—I have been subject to a Dr. Vondersmith:—I have been subject to a cough, pain in the chest, difficulty of breathing, & for many years past. About four months of the Asserted St. I to k a severe cold; which settled on my lustress that it was unable to attend to my business the first the day. I would have dreadful coughing of the first throught it was impossible for me to ser rive unless I could get relief. The excessive right weats, had reduced my whele body to a skeleton. I expectorated white frothy mucous, as fact, should I give the full particulars of my case, it would be almost incredible. I was recommended to try Dr. Vondersmith's Indian Cough the and Lung Balsam. I consented; when I classed is about one week, my cough decreased of half-rable, which gave me great hopes. I continued with the medicine according to directions, and the result has been that I am restored to health.

and the result has been that I am restored to health a blessing that I have not enjoyed for years, until the present. I sincerely believe had I not made use of Dr. Vomlersmith's invaluable medicine, that I would be mouldering in the silent grave,— that I would be mouldering in the silent grave,— Therefore I believe that I am doing nothing but want is justice, in stating the above facts, so that you may show it to all the afflicted who may call include you to administer to them. I shall be he pleased at any time to converse with the adhered who call upon no. Your grateful patient and trionel.

Dr. EMANUEL.

Dear Sir: —You may perhaps think my statement almost incredible. My reason for fearing so is the fact of your never recommending your Deliyfor the cure of confirmed consumption, but only in its primary or first stages. I have every reason to believe that I was in its last stage; my classic total me so; my friends told me, so, as reason to believe that I was in the last stage; my physician told me so; my friends told me, so; as well did my symptoms, for they were truly alarms; ing; and I felt fully convinced, that unites relief was obtained. I must soon be consigned to the narrow confines of the silent grave. But by the timely use of y air remedy. I still live, and again only on y former good health. I had, indeed, dear wir, all the planning symptoms you speak of as forming consemption in its worst stage; but by the use of your Jelly, I again say, I am cured.

Yours, dear sir, with great sincerity,
